

Update to JDA (Increased penalties - PEDs)

Written by Update to JDA
Saturday, 12 February 2005 12:00

Update to the Joint Drug and Treatment Program \(increased penalties for those that test positive for steroid use\)

An update to the 2003-2006 Collective Bargaining Agreement

January 13, 2005

Format - PDF

Size - 1.59 megs

B. Player Tests Positive for Steroids

- 1) First positive test: a 10-day suspension or $10,000 fine;
- 2) Second positive test: a 30-day suspension or $25,000 fine;
- 3) Third positive test: a 60-day suspension or $50,000 fine;
- 4) Fourth positive test: a one-year suspension or up to a $100,000 fine;
- 5) Any subsequent positive test result by a Player shall result in the Commissioner imposing further discipline on the Player. The level of discipline will be consistent with the concept of progressive discipline.