The on-again, off-again television agreement between the Toronto Blue Jays and the CBC will be completed by the end of the week, according to sources close to negotiations.

Barring an 11th-hour change, the CBC will air eight Blue Jays games this season, probably starting with back-to-back weekend games at home against the Colorado Rockies on June 23 and 24.

CBC is looking to fill content after losing the CFL in 2008.
