Legendary former Major League Baseball pitcher Don Larsen will appear on MLB Tonight today at 12:05 p.m. ET for a live phone interview with MLB Network's Greg Amsinger, Al Leiter, Barry Larkin and John Hart. Larsen, the former New York Yankees pitcher who pitched the only perfect game in MLB Postseason history in Game Five of the 1956 World Series against the Brooklyn Dodgers, will discuss Philadelphia Phillies pitcher

Roy Halladay's no-hitter during last night's NLDS Game One win against the Cincinnati Reds

. Later today, MLB Tonight will include an interview with Halladay and MLB Network analyst and former Phillies pitcher Mitch Williams, recorded today at Citizens Bank Park in Philadelphia. Larsen, a two-time World Series champion and the MVP of the 1956 World Series, pitched in the Major Leagues from 1953 to 1967 and made four consecutive trips to the Postseason with the New York Yankees from 1955-1958.
